Abstract: St. John's Episcopal Church was organized June 7, 1847 with the help of the Rev. Benjamin Ackerly, rector of St. Paul's Church. He felt that the South Side of Milwaukee needed an Episcopal Congregation. The first church was a small wooden edifice on South Division St. (later Pierce St.) near Hanover St. On December 27th, 1853 a much larger brick church, around the corner on Hanover St., was consecrated. A spire was added in 1860 and chimes in 1867. The church was remodeled in 1893. In 1922 a frame church on S. 26th and Mitchell Sts. was purchased for a mission. In 1932 the recent church was built on the Mineral St. property, and the church on Hanover was abandoned.
